

OCT. 7 FRIDAY

The Buffett Institute for Global Studies and the Department of French & Italian and co-sponsors the French Interdisciplinary Group (FIG), the Program in Middle East and North African Studies (MENA), and the Program of African Studies

PRESENT

The Penultimate Voyage:
Dante, Sindbad, Ulysses
a lecture by Abdelfattah Kilito

Kresge 1-515
4:00 PM

Free and open to everyone. Reception to follow.

ABDELFATTAH KILITO

ABDELFATTAH KILITO is a world-renowned writer, critic, translator and scholar from Morocco. His body of work on Arabic poetics, on A Thousand of One Nights, on authorship and perjury in the Arabic tradition as well as his own works of fiction distinguishes itself not only by its variety of genres but also by its originality of style and theme, navigating multiple literary and linguistic traditions. This first week-long visit to Northwestern has been made possible by a "Big Ideas" grant from the Buffett Institute for Global Studies.

OCT. 3 MONDAY

MENA Monday:
LANGUAGES
OF THE LITERATURES
OF THE MAGHREB

OCT. 4 TUESDAY

Breakfast and discussion
with Abdelfattah Kilito

