

THE DEPARTMENT OF
FRENCH & ITALIAN PRESENTS

AND YET SHE SPEAKS: DIOTIMA, FEMINISM AND THE POLITICS OF LANGUAGE

A lecture by Anne-Emmanuelle Berger

Distinguished Professor of French Literature and Gender Studies at Paris 8 University (Vincennes Saint-Denis)

4:30_{PM} MONDAY, APRIL 17, 2017
HARRIS HALL-108

ANNE-EMMANUELLE BERGER is Distinguished Professor of French Literature and Gender Studies at Paris 8 University (Vincennes Saint-Denis). She currently heads the newly founded research unit LEGS (Laboratoire d'études de genre et de sexualité, CNRS/ Université Paris Lumières [Paris 8 / Paris Ouest]). Initially a specialist of 19th-century French poetry, Enlightenment literature and 20th-century French thought, she has been writing mainly for the past ten years on the epistemology and intellectual history of the field of gender and sexuality studies in the Western world, the politics of language(s), and the relations between literature, philosophy and politics.

LIGHT RECEPTION TO FOLLOW. FREE AND OPEN TO EVERYONE.
CO-SPONSORED BY THE FRENCH INTERDISCIPLINARY GROUP, CRITICAL THEORY CLUSTER, AND GENDER AND SEXUALITY STUDIES PROGRAM

WWW.FRENCHANDITALIAN.NORTHWESTERN.EDU