

The Department of
French and Italian

&

The French
Interdisciplinary Group

PRESENT

POSTCOLONIAL STUDIES IN FRANCE TODAY

BY

DOMINIQUE COMBE

ÉCOLE NORMALE SUPÉRIEURE - PARIS

Professor Combe is a specialist of literary theory, French literature and poetics, and postcolonial literatures and theories. Author of a large body of work, his latest book on the renowned poet and political figure from Martinique, Aimé Césaire, is entitled Aimé Césaire: Cahier d'un retour au pays natal (2014). Professor Combe directs the joint ENS-EHESS-Sorbonne Masters program on Literary Theory and is also the current Director of International Programs at ENS-Paris

Thursday, May 5, 4:30PM

McCormick Foundation Center #3-127

Free and open to everyone. Reception to follow.

frenchanditalian.northwestern.edu
bufett.northwestern.edu/programs/fig.html

French Interdisciplinary Group
Buffett Institute for Global Studies
French Embassy in the United States

FRENCH EMBASSY
IN THE UNITED STATES

CENTERS OF EXCELLENCE

