Students with no previous knowledge of the French language start in Elementary French (French 111) and continue with Intermediate French (French 121).

Students who have studied one (1) or more years of French in High School must take the NU online placement test that will determine the level they may enter. <https://placement.madstudio.northwestern.edu/>

The lowest course in which students may be placed is Intensive Elementary French (French 115), and then continue with French 121 or 125.
